

Press Release

Press Statement from the Independent Police Complaints Council

(Hong Kong – August 29, 2019) The Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC) today received a petition letter from an organisation illustrating their views on the displaying of insignia on the uniforms of the Police’s special tactical squad.

The IPCC respects the public’s right to freedom of opinion and expression. The Council will, as always, uphold the core values of impartiality, independence and integrity in discharging its statutory functions.

###

Notes to editor:

About the Independent Police Complaints Council

The Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC) is an independent body established under the Independent Police Complaints Council Ordinance (IPCCO) (Cap. 604) to observe, monitor and review the handling and investigation of “Reportable Complaints” (RCs) against the Police by the Commissioner of Police (CP). The IPCC has become a statutory body since the commencement of IPCCO on 1 June 2009.